What a beautiful tribute to Kevin. He was a great friend always smiling and giving a encouraging word. Always enjoyed running into him and his family while on vacation in Florida at the mall or Aunt Catfish. Love you and your family!

“ Such a good guy, such a tragic loss so young. Just glad he's not suffering and has fought the fight, run the race & now finished the course. Glad he, his wife & son had the ability to make some memories.

The Elza family, your all in my prayers & thoughts.

“ Many of my best memories with Kevin was playing basketball. Jessie built us a ball court and we even put up lights so we could play after dark. Granny Williams would stand at the window and watch us play for hours. Kevin was the best basketball player ever. He could shoot the ball from the side past the 3 point line and he hit 95 out of a 100 shots. In his older days he fought a hard battle with cancer. He survived 20 years. Now his battle is over and he is pain free reunited with loved ones, but most of all he is with JESUS. .Don't ever forget LOVE IS STRONGER THAN DEATH. It might separate us for a while but you will always live in our heart and memories.

“ Paul, Judy, Susan, Noah, Kyle, Jody, so sorry for your loss! Kevin was such a light! He was always positive. He made you feel good just to talk to him, no matter what the conversation was about. We know your hearts are heavy but, he has graduated from earth's struggles! We have the assurance of scripture, “For we know that if our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved, we have a building of GOD, an house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.” Kevin moved to a new home!! May GOD hold you in the comfort of His love.

“ We pray that our Heavenly Father will hold the Elza family in His loving arms, bring them peace, and guide them through these hard times. May they always remember the love and happiness they shared in this life. May they feel comfort in knowing they will be together again in a land of no more sorrow, no more sickness, and no more goodbyes. In the precious name of Jesus we pray and ask these things. Amen.
