I took his hand when I heard him say,
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work, or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way.
I found that peace at the close of the day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joys.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Oh yes, these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow.
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much.

“ We didn't really get to grow up around our Kentucky family but please know that our thoughts and prayers are with you in this time of grief. Aunt Rosie no parent should ever have to bury a child ,so I know how hard this is on you and those left behind. Have faith that every day will bring a little bit more strength and peace to those who love and miss him. May God keep each and everyone of you in his comforting embrace and love. Linda Smith Morris

“ The only time I left this amazing man's side was when I had to work. I was daddy's girl. I would do everything from washing his hair to putting socks on his feet. I honest to God would have spent the rest of my life tending to his every need. I watched my dad get better then worse back and forth for almost ten years. We never gave up, and he never gave up. Now that he's gone I miss him so much. It's like an ache in my chest that won't go away. Right now I don't know if I'm more sad or mad. I do know that I have no regrets. I spent the largest part of my time with him and I loved every minute. We let my dad pass exactly how he wanted, at home and close to his loving wife and girls. We were his heart and soul. I always felt safe and loved growing up. He took such great care of us. In my eyes, we had the perfect family. He will be missed as much as someone could possibly be missed. Dad's personality was one of a kind. I looked forward to coming home after work. We would spend every day joking and laughing uncontrollably. This man was my heart and soul. A piece of me died when he passed, and I know I'll never be the same. Underneath my anger is pain. This pain is the worst kind of pain you could ever feel. All the kind words and support are helping my family through this extremely difficult time. Please know it is appreciated from the bottom of our hearts. My dad would be honored.
