Linda leaves behind a legacy of love, generosity, and vibrant personality. A former model and successful Estee Lauder salesperson, Linda was as glamorous as she was warm-hearted. She had a passion for fashion, particularly her beloved Louis Vuitton bags, but it was her love for her family that truly defined her. Linda always made sure she knew where everyone was at all times, ensuring that her family remained close-knit and connected.

Linda adored her children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren, treasuring every moment spent with them. Known for her outgoing and generous nature, Linda never met a stranger, always ready to strike up a conversation or lend a helping hand. She was the type of person who would literally give you the shirt off her back, and everyone who met her couldn't help but love her.

"Nuicie," a nickname given to her for her talkative nature, became a term of endearment, as her lively conversations and infectious laughter filled the room. She had a love for thrifting and yard sales, always searching for hidden treasures, just as she saw the treasure in people.

Linda's boundless love, energy, and joy for life will be deeply missed, but her memory will live on in the hearts of everyone who had the privilege of knowing her.

The family has entrusted House-Rawlings Funeral Home with the arrangements.
