“ Linda was a special friend, always there when needed, a true Christian prayer warrior. Would always have a smile on her face and could share a great scripture when needed. A beautiful voice that is singing in the choir. We shared a friendship over 50 years, tears, laughter, celebration of the birth of her grandkids, silly things at college and graduate school. She will truly be missed, not forgotten, friendship treasured, and truly we know where she is celebrating today. Phil 1:2-10.
