“ Georgia and Marvin, condolences to you at the passing of Lowell. When my husband and i lived in London we attended Macedonia United Methodist. We felt blessed to meet and to fellowship with Lowell, and we always enjoyed conversing with him. He was a fine man - a faithful and loving Christian and a wonderful brother in Christ.

“ Mr. Chestnut meant a lot to me ,not only was he my Teacher at Lily. He was a great example of Gods Love. He would visit my parents at Lily with his Pastor and members from his Church and that was a blessing.He made a difference in the life of Mom and Dads /Lawrence and Ruth Benfield when they could no longer leave their home. Now they can visit again and I'll forever be grateful..Sabrina (Benfield) Cobb Richmond Ky.
