“ Grandma used to make me Grilled Cheese & pickles (I will always love that) she was a great chef...had a HUGE passion about cooking stuff.. Thanksgiving, Christmas time, family gatherings she made the family a FEAST..grandma was at times feisty for her size but meant well (smacked you when you needed it playfully like lol). Had such a big loving heart and was a shopper..loved black Fridays and such. Her passion in hobbies was doing crosswords in a fine ink flowing black pen and had a passion for playing Rummy. Shed sit for hours doing both. Grandma always made sure her house was welcoming to anyone that knew her. As a kid I remember the old house climbing up and down the hill, we had a lot of old memories there. Even water fights and grandma got everyone good too...shed get the hose at times or hide behind a glass door lol. Grandma had a heart of a child, she had a youthful soul and was very loving. She was a very strong spirited woman and that's how id like to always remember her as. I LOVE YOU GRANDMA!!!
