“ My Aunt Mabel was one the nicest, sweetest, most humble person you could imagine. A loving, caring lady that will be missed by many. Her first husband, Uncle Henry Sherman, was my mother's brother. They, like their mother, were humble and caring. Henry and Mabel's children, David Sherman and Peggy Bentley are very fortunate, having inherited those traits and fine qualities from both parents. They are wonderful people that have instilled those qualities, and more, to their children. In all, this is an outstanding family; honest, truthful, to a fault sometimes, hard working people that enjoys life to the fullest, no matter what obstacles are placed in their path. I wish there were many more like them in this world. I love each and every one of them and I am blessed and thankful to be a part of their family. I am very proud of them and extremely proud to know them. God Bless them in this time of sorrow.
