“ Margaret always made you feel welcome and wanted you to feel at home. I visited many times in the Amyx home. She would ask if you wanted a Coke and a candy bar. She asked many times if I wanted a meal once in a while I would stay. She loves her children and grandchildren and always wanted Chris to be dressed nicely and clean. Mary was older so I don't know all the concerns she had for her. Now for Jim she wanted him to get right with God and for a year and a half we studied the Bible each week. Jim finally surrendered in April and we baptized him. Margaret and family was so happy. Margaret is a very special loving mother to all.
