“ Margaret was a remarkable, intelligent, caring woman with a generous spirit. A devoted mother, a loving wife and unbelievably tolerant grandmother. She loved animals and her life on the farm, an avid UK basketball fan, I doubt she ever missed a game. I've heard rumors of legendary Rook games with friends and family that were known to extend into the early morning hours, and she was, in my opinion, the most accomplished and skilled card player in the family (though Kenneth would no doubt disagree). She was an exceptional individual and she will be missed, terribly. Her spirit eternal, her love manifest in her children and family. We are blessed to have experienced and shared her life.
