Margie Bailey was married to Bob Bailey for 53 years, until his death in 2011. She was one of Jehovah's Witnesses from November 1974 until her death. She will be missed by all of her fleshly family as well as her great Spiritual Family. Those who knew her are from all over the country. She was associated with Congregations of Jehovah's Witnesses in Hamilton, OH; Norwood, OH; Pleasant Ridge, OH; London, KY; Corbin, KY; Barbourville, KY and Cumberland Gap, TN. Some of those who knew her did so for almost 50 years. Her faith in the promises of her Creator was great. She always looked forward to the time when all tears, pain and suffering would be gone. She looked forward to being reunited with her husband and to welcoming back the children she lost. Her faith never wavered. And she loved sharing her Bible based hope with others.

Margie also enjoyed the beauty of nature. She loved fall and winter, as can be seen in the paintings she did. She was also a flower lover, always planting them around whatever home she lived in. She was also a very hard worker. If she was not working around the house on some project for herself, she was working on a project for someone else. She loved doing things for others. She loved cooking for large groups, and she was wonderful at it.

Her love impacted many people. Her willing spirit and her desire to help others will be missed. All those who knew her loved her.

While she is now at rest, those who truly knew her look forward to seeing her again in God's new world of Righteousness and Peace. Her reward is Secure!

“ I love the time I spent with mamaw especially when she and my Aunt Penny moved farther south in KY closer to me and my family. I was able to help both of them unpack and settle into their new places, and got to know them both really well!

One of my fondest memories with mamaw was when I was about 13, or 14. I spent the night with her and I use to be scared of the dark so I usually slept with a small light on, but I didn't want to bother mamaw with the light or seem like a baby for needing a light on. So we slept in pitch black, and I had a severe panic attack. I was crying, and felt sick to my stomach. Mamaw as loving as she was stayed up as late as I needed until I calmed down. She gave me ice to chew on, and put my hair up, and just talked to me to calm me down. Then she very lovingly turned a light on just for me so I could sleep.

Mamaw was always putting the needs of others ahead of her own needs, and she will be greatly missed!

“ Dear mom thanks for the unexpected memories! :)

I had never heard of The Virginian until we stumbled upon it on cable and mom said "Oh, I love that show!".... So I bought the whole DVD set, and every evening we sat and watched and an episode or two until at least midnight, EVERY SINGLE NIGHT (Mom was a night owl-I knew I got it from someone)

I can see her now sitting on her sofa with her beloved dog and cat, and a big bowl of ice cream or a soda and chips, laughing and giggling and following along with the plot and both of us making commentary. We had the best time enjoying that together! She wasn't fanatical about James Drury, but we had a good laugh when I got her a signed picture. To be honest, she really just wanted his horse!

Who knew such a simple thing would become one of my favorites things to remember.---Rita

“ Thank you, Bobby, for a great tribute to our mother...

Lately I have really been missing the fact that we can never again go home to visit for a great big meal of her famous fried chicken, gorgeous homemade biscuits and all her great side dishes and some peach cobbler! And specifically, how happy she would be to have us all there, and the comfort from the daily world that would bring.

I love you Mother-Dear more than I can ever express. It was mine and Stephen's privilege to get to pay back some of the care you gave me and all of us kids, over the years. You are my hero and my inspiration.

Rest in peace dear mother.

*Love,
Rita & Stephen*
