“ Martha had her own children, but every child at Johnson School was hers in her heart. She always saw they were well fed and that love went into every meal she helped prepared. Martha also spoiled the staff at Johnson. There were always special treats left in the workroom for all who entered. I am proud to have had the honor of Teaching at Johnson and knowing Martha Feltner as a Parent, co-worker and especially a friend!
God's Peace Martha

“ I’m so very sorry to hear this. I grew up with Linda and Rita. Spent many days at their house where Mrs. Feltner always made me feel welcome. A very nice, caring lady.

Love and prayers for you all.
