“ Warrior:

*I search for you as I walk my path
On my red road I trace your footsteps of time
I stand by the water's edge and I see your reflection
I reach for you but you disappear in the ripples
And I call out for you my warrior
My tears fall on the ground of which you stood
And I reach out for you my warrior
And I cry please...please...reach for me
I speak to you as I journey
My way is rough and steep but I go on
I feel you with every raindrop that falls upon me
But there is no cloud in the clear blue sky
And I call out for you my warrior
And my tears fall on the ground of which you stood
I reach out for you my warrior
And I cry please...please...reach for me
Reach for me...WARRIOR reach for me
I search and I seek
I walk and I speak
And cry tears of rain
As I call out for you my warrior
And I reach out for you my warrior
My tears fall on the ground of which you stood
Please...please...reach for me

“ I can say truthfully that everywhere Mickey went,he made people smile.He is the second Mickey I have had in my life and both have been wonderful human beings.He will be missed greatly by his American Indian community and Sundance family. I pray for healings to the family and suggest they look at him passing, not as a loss but a gain from the love he shared with many people. He is on vacation now and I look someday to us Sundancing again and carrying the flags in Pau wau.

“ Many prayers go out to Mickey’s family and friends. The first time I met Mickey was of Feb 2011...he became a fine member of the SCAIC and I learned so much from him. He was a valuable friend, mentor, and family member of the Council. He had a kind heart and gentle ease with everyone; he was so loving to my daughter and even made the effort to see my son at the hospital the day after he was born.

Lonnie and I will miss him greatly and I hope he’ll see my mom so she won’t be so alone...Creator called for him too soon, but now the pain is gone, the sun is bright, and he’s dancing that great dance w/his ancestors.

RIP Mickey.

Love,

The Peoples

“ I didn’t know “Mick” personally, but I feel as though I did. I received nearly daily phone calls from his sister Debbie as she sat by his side for the last two months of his life here on Earth. He must have been a very special person. May God give peace to those who loved & cared for him. Peace be with you, Mick.

“ The time soon comes for parting,
And our time is at an end,
The rest of your life is starting,
And we have no time at all to spend.
You knew one day you'd have to go,
But thought you'd have more time.
We can't reverse time's one-way flow,
But at least you'll have this rhyme.
You had your shining moments,
Upon this life's darkened stage,
And in my book of wonderments,
You'll never be just another page.
Like the exploding of a star,
You've changed me in and out,
Your light will travel with me far,
Past when all other lights go out.
Aho

“ Mickey shall rest now, he's with the ancestors looking over each of us. I know he will be with us in spirit. He touched many lives and I will never forget my friend. I scene Mickey this past Sunday for only a little while we promised we would see each other again and dance a sneak up together as we always did. Go in peace and dance on forever.. He's a warrior and a great friend he will be missed so much. I am dedicating every sneak up dance to the memory of Mickey this year.

“ Mickey will truly be missed. Rob and i sat here and were remembering all the memories with mickey. We remember having coffee with him late one night at his tent at the Vigo County Conservation club pow wow. We talked for hours about different things. He taught us about the owl when we heard one that night. If your totem was the redtail hawk at night its opposite was the scretch or night owl at night. We miss having these talks. Till we met again brother. R.I.P. Prayers as you go on your journey.
