“ My memories of Florence are as a child visiting with my large family to stay for a few days. Florence always greeted us with a smile and had a huge delicious meal, dessert, and coffee waiting for our arrival. The discussions were always lively, full of laughter and love, and thanks to the coffee, could start early in the day and last well into the night. As a child I was grateful and those visits were more prized than a visit to Disneyland. As an adult I am humbled and in awe of how effortless she made it seem.

Now we mourn the loss of yet another amazing matriarch in our family, strong in her devotion to God, tireless in her efforts towards family and community. We were truly blessed to have had Florence to care for us, love us, and teach us. What an amazing generation it is that we are losing. Their knowledge ... priceless, their ability ... endless, and their passion knows no bounds. May we all be able to make such a mark and impression on this world when we leave. My condolences to everyone, this hole will not be filled but her love will live in us forever. Florence is with our Lord and Savior and she will greet us in the Everlasting when our time comes.

“ I love this family like they were my family and Florence was a beautiful soul who raised her children to all be God fearing, kind and big hearted. That speaks volumes for her character. Her race is won and we all should strive to see her again one day in the glory land. My condolences to all who loved her.

“ Florence was a special lady. She was always creating something artistic and bringing projects to us to be printed at the size she needed. She rarely came in without a cake of some kind or a plate of her world class brownies.
