“ My deepest sympathy to Melba’s family. I have worked with Melba for a long time and we developed a great friendship. She was an intelligent and energetic lady, whom always had a smile and a kind thought. I will miss you, Melba and I am glad I spent time with you on Wednesday. With sadness Darlene Steele

“ I am so sorry for your loss, Melba was like my mother and Johnny and Ronnie were like brothers to me. She treated me just like the daughter she never had. I can remember when we lived together in Dallas, I wanted to go out and she told me to clean my room. Of course I cleaned by putting all my stuff in the bathtub and pulling the shower curtain. When she found out what I had done, she would not let me go out. Of course I was acting like a young adult, but she treated me just like her two boys and made me do what I was suppose to do. Because of Melba, I am the person I am today. I love you Melba and I will always miss you. Your dearest friend & only daughter.
