“ Ellis and I are so sorry for your loss. Mildred was our neighbor since 1985 when we moved into the neighborhood. She was a good neighbor. We shared stories and laughed a lot. I remember her growing a garden and bringing me mustard greens. I took her cantaloupe and tomatoes. She planted flowers every year in front of her house in the built up bed. She gave me a recipe for a chocolate pie that I use for special occasions. When I was sick with the flu, she brought me potato soup. My husband mowed her grass and she watched our house when we would go out of town. We miss Mildred but will always remember her as a wonderful neighbor and friend. God's mercy and grace be with all of those that loved her during this time of grieving.
