“ Nancy was one of the sweetest ladies I ever had the privilege to know. I will always remember having lunch at Gigi's and her lovingly telling us the story of how she named the place after the name her grandchildren called her. Always kind. Soft spoken. Supportive. What a treasure. We have loved John Ross since he and our granddaughter were in elementary school together. So very sorry for your loss. Unbelievable that someone so young and so full of life could have left so soon. Our prayers are with all of you.
