She leaves behind four children, Rebecca Hinkle & husband Michael, Lora Jewell & husband Harold, Christopher Sizemore, Sydney R. Sizemore; one son-in-law, Jim Sanders all of London, KY; four siblings, Doug Harris, William Harris both of London, KY, Pamela Russell Tutty of Lexington, KY, Agnes Sizemore of Venice, FL; ten grandchildren, Wanda Bruner, Candace Trospen, Michael Lynn Hinkle, James Sanders, Jordan Sanders, Travis Sanders, Whitney Marcum, Andrew Jewell, Jonathan Sanders, JT Sizemore; sixteen great-grandchildren; two great-great grandchildren; plus a host of nephews, nieces and other family and friends to cherish her memory.

She loved having her family together and caring for them with comfort food from her garden and kitchen. Cooking was one of the many ways she showed her love, and she never hesitated to step in when someone was sick or in need. She worried over her children constantly, loving them fiercely—she was hardest on them, but no one else was allowed to be.

Nancy enjoyed the simple pleasures of life: trips to the Root Beer Stand, browsing yard sales, and hunting for treasures at Goodwill. She had a fiery spirit and never held back—if you made her mad, you would hear about it. Feisty and full of life, even to the very end, Nancy will be remembered for her strength, her love, and her unwavering dedication to those she held dear.
