“ I still cherish memories of visiting the Young family farm during summer vacations in my childhood, and Nora allowing me and my younger sister to play with her dolls. She had a huge heart was always so kind to us, even though we were her younger and I'm sure at times, annoying, younger cousins. A wonderful memory...

“ I was blessed to know Nora for many years. First as a young mother and then as a new teacher. She had sass and sunk and we loved to laugh. My favorite memory of her is one where she taught me to be a grandma. Her classroom was across the hall. She and Ronnie were wrapping fun little nicknacks for her grand kids. She had a big box and loving put the little things in it. I'm sure that when the children opened the box they'd be smiling. Miss you Nora and I look forward to singing and dancing with you in heaven.
