She was preceded in death by her parents, Raymond & Imogene Hensley Elza; and by her nephew, Eric Elza.

Patricia was a devoted public servant and faithful member of her community.

Patricia faithfully served as the City Clerk Treasurer for the City of London for 28 and a half years. In that role, she was known for her integrity, diligence, and unwavering commitment to serving her community with excellence. Her work touched countless lives, and she earned the respect and admiration of colleagues and citizens alike.
