“ So sorry to hear of Patti's passing. I worked with her at the hospital. She was the one of the nicest people you would ever meet. Always so helpful and organized :). I remember going into her office and everywhere there were these big white notebooks she kept EVERYTHING in! She will be sorely missed but knowing she is smiling right now just like in her picture does my heart good. God bless her family!

“ An angel in deed. I've known Patti for 36 years. We met on the front steps of her grandmothers porch, with a warm welcome of a smile on her face and an extended hand for a shake. I have always been so proud to say "she is my sister in law".

“ Patti was one of the kindest and gentlest people I have ever known. She was considerate and caring, and always willing to help. She made this a better place to live, both for those of us who were blessed to know her for a while, and for countless others. And while our world is a little bit darker, I know that heaven is a whole lot brighter.

My deepest condolences to you, Greg, and to the family. I hope that the love and memories that Patti shared with you will help you through.

“ I met her in the warm, sunny month of April...the day she was born. After all these years, I so often think of that beautiful baby girl with her little wisps of reddish golden hair. It was hard to tear yourself away from her....as it was to this day. She grew into this beautiful, precious soul with a tender heart and the will to "do it right" whatever she was doing. Those of us who knew her were so very fortunate. She was so courageous; she fought her sickness with a vengeance...when she saw she couldn't beat it, she accepted so gracefully; with Greg by her side every step of the way. Thank you, God, for lending us this Angel.

“ Patti will always be remembered for her genuine smile and concern for others. She had that characteristic in high school and she kept it throughout her life. She was always willing to help, more than willing to go the extra mile for someone else. We were classmates, we worked together on our high school reunion. She was an avid part of the Class of Laurel County High School graduates of 1975. We will cherish her memory. Deepest sympathies to her family, and especially to husband Greg. Love and prayers coming your way, Greg!
