“ I remember Phyllis as a young girl, my mother (Christine Ervin) and Phyllis were the best of friends being neighbors and both were home and raising young children, they seem to have a common thread in comforting each other and laughter was always about! They remain friends for many years, even though life took them in different directions and they both lost a child, went thru many hardships and heartaches and health issues. Phyllis remain present in our life, even after my Mother passed on, she always seem to be interested in each one of us as an individual, So sorry for her family. I pray you each and everyone receive Gods peace in your grief. God Bless!
