“ I'm truly sad today, my childhood friend and part of my raising in the late 70's and 80's was from Randy, Ronnie, and Sandy and for sure Maxie. I was from Illinois and I didn't know a thing about the country life, they taught me so many things at warp speed lol. Ronnie was close to my age he was the toughest kid I knew in grade school, I learned toughness and to protect my family from him. Sandy is so sweet and funny, Sandy and Ronnie would have me rolling on the floor laughing. Tony, Darlene, Charlene were all good to me too, Tammy was the baby at the time, they all protected and looked after her. Then there's Randy he was the best athlete on Hawk Creek Road, basketball he would toy with people who played against him. Baseball it seemed like it was a homerun everytime he hit the ball. Kickball, Randy would kick the ball so high it looked like a pebble when it reached it's peak. Horseshoes, by the end of 4 or 5 games Randy would have all your pocket money. I forgot Randy could out run a scalded dog. You would think that I'm making this up, you can ask anyone on Hawk Creek that knew Randy and they will tell you the same. Randy was also hilarious and a great friend, you couldn't ask or find better neighbors then the Adams truly... Love you Randy. Love to all the Adams. To be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord.

“ I would like to tell The Adams that I am truly sorry for their loss of Randy Adams. He was a good man. He's like an uncle to me. Just like his brothers, and his sisters was like aunts.
