“ I’m going miss Uncle Ray I loved talking to him and listening to his stories of when he and my dad were growing up. He always called to check on mom and the rest of our family. He reminded me so much of dad. He always managed to make me laugh regardless of how I felt. He never failed saying “I love you” before we hung up the phone. I will miss him so much and I know it’s nothing compared to how his children must feel. Prays for comfort for his family during this difficult time. Just know he is Gods loving arms I love you guys.
