“ I remember Raymond coming to our house to see his grandpa who lived with us. He was a cousin but more of a big brother also. He used to like fast cars and motorcycles and was always fun to talk to. Rest in peace brother.

“ Growing up with cousin Raymond was always an adventure for me, he would always come and take me fishing in Hazel Patch creek and go hunting on our farm. In our younger years we would ride our horse Ole Nell, Raymond in front and me on the back holding on for dear life . I have nothing but fond memories of our childhood together. We will all miss you cousin Raymond, rest in peace with your loved ones.....Lowell Cromer

“ When I was growing up we lived next door to Aunt Maude & Uncle Brady. Every Tuesday my cousin Raymond came over for supper because Edith was working late at the stock yards. Aunt Maude always made soup beans and cornbread because its was Raymond's favorite. Everytime I think of the days we ate soup beans and cornbread I think of my cousin Raymond.
