“ Condolences to Bob's family. Sadly through the years and miles we haven't seen much of each other. But I do have great memories of many years ago when we both were part of the "dart team" for the Scotchman in Osceola Mills. I was in my mid 20's and Bob was early 30's. We were quite a pair whether we were shooting darts or having a "few" beers! Awesome times that meant a great deal to me then, hanging with my older cousin, and mean so much more to me now.

“ It is so hard to put into words how much I miss my papaw already. He was such a special person in my life. I will never forget the life lessons he has taught me, the endless conversation, the joking, laughing, crying.

I love you old man!
