“ For the christian, to be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord. Bob is safely home now to spend eternity in the presence of the Lord, Edna, and all the family who made the journey before him. God bless and give comfort and peace to his family.

“ Praying for all of you all. I will always remember coming to visit at Bob and Edna house on a Sunday. You all have great memories of having Sunday dinners with both your parents/ grandparents. The Sunday I will always remember that one especially John, Uncle Bob and I set on back porch listening to some stories he told about him (BOB) and John's dad Raymond working together and a few other stories. We had a wonderful time sitting there listening. Praying for all of you all. will miss coming to visit at uncle Bob's and Aunt Edna's

“ My papaw was truly a great man! I am so blessed to have had such a wonderful relationship with my grandparents and I will never forget all the many memories. Even though they were grandparents they were also like parents too. My favorite memory was when my papaw was saved and baptized at the age of 72. I will never forget that day and now I had the honor to be there when he left this world. I know he is so happy to be home with mamaw once again. It's amazing that they were only apart for 1 year and 1 day. It's almost like The Lord didn't want them to be away from each other for another year. I love you papaw and mamaw.

“ Uncle Bob, I will surely miss you. I looked forward to your hugs you always gave me. I know you are with Aunt Edna again with her fussing over you, (just the way she used to) and enjoying every minute of it. You two were always such a special couple. I loved you both dearly. To the family, I believe he is where he wanted to be. He missed her so much. I love you all, Mary
