“ My heart is torn apart and my eyes are flowing with tears a great God fearing woman and the heart of gold. Your smile so big and welcoming, made anyone feel better. As you know, you and I always had a special relationship and I am truly so sad and really speechless lost for words you were the glue that that held your family together, the foundation. You raised up some amazing kids and had a great marriage , so many memories whether it was you coming in town to Papa's , or treating us all to Kings island or all getting together at Papas for Thanksgiving. My favorite memory was you coming to get me and staying at your house watching Katie's soccer matches. You always made me feel so special and made me feel all the love you had for me made me always feel so happy. I am happy of one thing and that I know you are going to punch your ticket into heaven and I know you will be a guardian angel for your girls and Josh and grandkids . I Love you so much Robin and wish I could have shared with you about how much you meant to me . Love you with all my heart and I will see you soon . Love Nate

“ I have many good memories throughout the years. The thing that sticks with me the most, is her always smiling and brightening up people's day, her kindness, and her strong faith and devotion to her family and God. I will cherish the memories we shared with the entire "tribe" at Papas, staying with her and my cousins in London in the summer, and her taking us to Kings Island and hearing Michael W. Smith and I believe Jars of Clay too for the first time. She was a gift, she was thoughtful and will be missed by many. Love Ryan
