“ Rosie was one of the Sweetest people I know. She loved to sit on the porch in the Spring and I would wave to her and she would wave back as I mowed the grass. This Spring just won't be as beautiful without Rosie in it. I will miss you dearly. Love Darlene

“ She was devoted to others and too kind for this world, she always supported others at the expense of her own dreams but she still had them and a simple joy which I will always remember. I remember her running me down to her mother, the Vanovers and it seemed like heaven, my Grandmother always had ice cream, and books and music and wisdom. I hope she is in that Heaven. Everything good in me comes from her, when my time comes I know she will be the one calling my name.
