“ Such a lovely lady. I know she will be missed by her family, but rejoicing with her loved ones in Heaven. Will never forget her singing at the Oregonia Church of God. She was a blessing to all.

“ I am writing for our family who is also dealing with a loved one that are near passing. We all were talking about Aunt Ruby this morning, and I told Mother, Jim, and Lon that I wanted to write for our family. Sister Sue is near joining a host of family that are already in Heaven. I know that sadness that you feel in the loss of your mother.

I will always remember the last visit to her apartment in London, her words were you look like Richmond. Come in and lets get you something to eat. We ate and talked for awhile then she said lets sing some songs. She sat down and started playing and singing church songs that I knew and we sat for a hour or more. She loved me and our family like hers. I have no doubt, that the Angels and Heavens Choir are singing at the arrival of Aunt Ruby. Our family's prayers and good thoughts will be with you during this time of celebration. Ray Williams for Martha Williams, Jim, Lon, and sister Sue.

“ To The Robinson Family: We loved your family from the time we met you in Williamsburg many years ago. Sister Ruby always blessed us in church with her music and was a great cook. She has made it home, and we will join her someday! May God comfort each of you in a special way.
