“ We are sorry to hear about your loss. May these words provide you hope and comfort during this your time of sadness. Jesus said of himself, "I am the resurrection and the life" at John 11:25. He also performed several resurrections. May God sustain you all during this time as well.

“ Our little Sister loved life and her Family. There were times when she was her own worst enemy, but then there were times, when I envied her intense power to forgive. Cream-Boat, forgive me if I have failed you. I promise that I will try to be a better person for your Children and your Grand-Children, if given the chance. I love you and always will.

Sharon Zegarzewski - September 01, 2016 at 03:59 PM

“ My Sister was one of a kind there is no doubt. To talk with her you would think that life had been unkind----but that is not the Sister we knew. Our Sister had more life and more love than anyone could imagine. She was fair of face and an extra smile for anyone, who would share. Always in a hurry, but no more. Today she rests. She watches her Children and she watches her Grand-Children at play to her hearts content. She loved the beauty of God's creation, from a Rainbow to a Firefly to the stars in the sky. They brought her great joy. We cannot change the fact that she is now gone----but can we not give her the one thing in this life that she struggled so hard to do-----To shower the love for her, over her Children and Grand-Children.....least they forget. Now that would be a real tragedy. We must not steal from her in death, the one thing she fought so long and so hard for.
