She was preceded in death by her parents, Rennie & Eileen Dunkle Manning; and by one sister, Kathy Moore.

Teresa's vibrant spirit touched everyone she met. She lived life to the fullest, finding joy in the things that mattered most to her. She had a profound passion for riding motorcycles, which she often enjoyed with friends and family, embracing the freedom and thrill that came with it.

Teresa's garden was her sanctuary; she took great pleasure in nurturing her plants and watching them flourish, much like the love she cultivated in her life. Her heart also found joy in caring for her chickens, a testament to her nurturing spirit. Teresa attended Cornerstone Baptist Church in London, and her deep faith was a cornerstone of her life. Her commitment to her church and her Christian values guided her through every aspect of her life.

Family and friends were central to Teresa's existence. She cherished the time spent with loved ones, and her home was always a place of warmth and laughter. She was also a devoted pet lover, with her beloved fur babies—Ollie, Scooter, and Harley—being a constant source of companionship and comfort.

Teresa's love for life, her zest for the outdoors, and her unwavering faith made her an inspiration to all who knew her. Her presence will be deeply missed, but her spirit will continue to live on in the memories and hearts of those she leaves behind.
