“ Carl/Sandy: I just got around to looking at my Lex Herald and saw your Mom's obituary. I loved your Mom so. I considered your Mom as my "real" aunt. I called your Mom and Dad "thimble and thread" when I was a child because I had a speech impediment. I had just told my husband, Eddie, I wanted to go to London to see your Mom. In fact I recently did a search to try to find Mary Evelyn on Facebook and instead found her obituary. I know how my Aunt "thimble" must have grieved for Mary Evelyn. Please accept my sympathy. Love, Charlene G.

“ I'll miss seeing lil Thelma at the nursing home. She was a joy to take care of. Never an ill word spoken. She kept us on our toes but we all loved her as our very own Granny. Prayers of comfort to your family.
