“ My beautiful best friend.. I don't know where to begin. We have been best friends since we were in kindergarten and have always been close no matter how far apart this life has taken us. I will never forget all our memories, all the times we caused trouble and all the times we were good Lil Catholic Girls. You were always there for me no matter what and I can't even begin to imagine what my life would be without you in it. Thank you for being my best friend for all these years. You were more than just my best friend , you were my Sister. I will never forget you and our friendship. I will always be here for John, Sarah and Briana and your grandbabies. You hold a special place in my heart. Your country roads have taken you home my beautiful BFF, I love you so much and will miss you more than I can express. Until we meet again, my beautiful BFF.
