

Tom Liesenhoff

September 23, 1932 - June 14, 2021

Tom Liesenhoff, age 88, of London, Kentucky passed away on Monday, June 14, 2021

He leaves behind two children, Sheila Marcellino & husband Ed of Louisville, KY, Tommy "Red" Liesenhoff of London, KY; four grandchildren, Jessica Driver & husband Jason, Anna Howerton & husband Cory, Eddie Marcellino & wife Amanda, Tony Marcellino & wife Molly; eight great grandchildren plus a host of other family and friends to mourn his passing.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Janet Robinson Liesenhoff; his parents, Clarence Liesenhoff and Clara Jones Liesenhoff; and his brother, James Robert Liesenhoff.

Tom retired from the United States Postal Service in 1986. He also served 4 years in the United States Navy. He was a sportswriter for the Sentinel Echo for 36 years. He had a great memory for games, plays, and history like no other when it came to sports. Tom also coached Little League baseball for many years. He was always a happy go lucky guy and known to many as one of his favorite lines, "Cold Beer Here". He was of the Methodist faith.

A memorial service for Tom Liesenhoff will be held at a later date. The family has entrusted House-Rawlings Funeral Home with the arrangements.

“ Tom was such a good-natured man. He was always ready to talk and laugh. I will always be grateful to him for keeping my daughter, Carey, and his granddaughter, Jessica, busy in the summertime by taking them swimming and to different events when they were younger. Tom will be missed and never forgotten, and I will always remember him with great fondness.

I learned a lot about Laurel County sports history from Tom. If I ever had a question he was there with the answer. Raise a cold one to you pal
