Venna Burne Rush, 94, of London, Kentucky departed this life on December 6, 2019. Born January 15, 1925 in Oolitic, Indiana, her family relocated to Marydell, KY a few years later. She graduated from Bush School and went on to earn her teaching certification from Eastern Kentucky University. After her retirement, she helped raise her four grandchildren and took on the care of her ailing parents. She was always raising a litter of kittens which she loved so very much. Any spare time was spent volunteering to help promote adult literacy and teach adults to read and write.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Bessie Peters Smith and Winford E. Smith, as well as her husband, Simuel K. Rush. She also suffered the loss of her son, Ted K. Rush as well as her granddaughter, Sarah Harris-Wilson. Survivors include her daughter, Gwenn Harris, currently residing in Berea, KY, grandsons Lowell Harris and Lee Harris, both living in London, KY, as well as a granddaughter, Susan Harris of Louisville, KY, along with extended family
