“ I what to send my symphony to the wife and Family of Terry Mullins ,
I went to school at Hazel Green with Terry was a good man and a friendly person both he and his wife , and we both are Veterans of the united states army, Terry went to Vietnam in the seventies . I meet Terry and his wife several times at the Lexington Va hospital. where we both were being treated for Cancer. I am deeply sadden by his death, and this world is a lesser place without him . God help his family during this sorrowful time , in Jesus Name I humbly ask respectably Stanley Mcqueen
