“ There’s simply not enough space, nor time, to memorialize Wandella, and the wonderful person she was! While we were in Kentucky, on Shackelford Hill as neighbors, Aunt Wandella opened her home to us every night to watch television with her. We were always welcome, and I’m sure we wore out that welcome after about a week. Nevertheless, her house was always open to us. There’s so many more memories, and I’m so glad to be able to have shared these times with such a lovely person.
