“ Warren Scoville was a maverick with a quick wit, an open presence, and a legal talent far beyond most. I will forever be grateful to Warren for showing me the legal ropes early as I began clerking for him at age 16. He even called me "Cupcake" in acknowledgement of how young and naive I was. Actually, in his kindness he probably gave me that nickname to help me feel more at ease and like part of the family at 5th and Main. My thoughts and prayers are with Warren, his immediate family, his extended family, and all those who knew and loved him. Warren, you will never be forgotten.

My favorite memory was camping at Levi Jackson park. We sat around the fire, told things we remember as children. He shared a story's about his father. Then I realized realized while his little girl and my son were playing what a true familyman he was and how much love he had to give his girls.

“ Ann you and I are distant cousins. Your father in law and my father, Sawyer Smith, were cousins. My husband was attorney Don B. Mills and when he was Commonwealth Attorney, (for a short period of time) I would go with him to the Commonwealth Attorneys office and would always see Warren. He was always so kind to me and we would sit and chat. My eldest son is John Knox Mills, former Circuit Judge and my middle son is Richard Burton Mills, Federal Probation Officer in London. They have told me several times that every time they saw Warren he always asked about me. I am so sorry for your loss and it grieves me so much to know that he is gone. “ I have no words that can make the pain you feel go away. I can tell you that he was a great and caring man. I hired him a few montgs ago and im glad that I did. Warren, had the ability to light up a room and never met a stranger. The most important thing he had in his life was his 15 yr. old daughter, he would have the biggest smile on his face when he would talk about her and how proud he was of her.. Its so hard losing a parent. I feel for each and everyone of the Scoville family.

“ I can remember Him from my teenage years me always in some kind of trouble and my dad going and getting Warren to come get me out of whatever I had done.... I can still remember when he use to come to my dad's for lunch some days to I pretty grow up knowing Warren..... he was a great man and a great friend I saw him about a month ago at the store and he seemed like his old self joking and cutting up like he always did.... I don't know he felt this was the best way out of whatever happened to him.... but I hope and pray he is flying high with the angels now God let his poor soul rest in piece he will be badly missed from his friends

Joy - May 07, 2015 at 05:59 PM

“ I remember when my family and I were going through all the trouble with the coal mines, after my husband passed away.

As I sit there being questioned and harassed, by the prosecuting side, I started crying, Warren jumped up out off his chair, the chair flew back against the wall and he screamed "I object and we need a recess". They have US a recess, but to make a long story short, he came into the room where I was and he chewed tobacco at that time. He reached for his tobacco and as he was putting it in His mouth, he was cussing and saying how he wanted to punch that guy in the face for doing that to me. He was kind of like my knight in shining armor that day and every time he has seen me he has always gave me a hug.

I just seen him Monday and he gave me a hug and ask me how I have been. I cannot believe he is gone.

I will be praying that God gives you strength and comfort and He wraps His loving arms around you and gives you peace....be blessed....
