“ Where do I even begin with my memories of Bill? There are just SO many because I have known him all my life! Memories with everything from sitting around the dinner table listening to him talk to Darla, Doug and me about life and it usually always started with "now listen children", to eating bacon he had cured himself after we butchered a hog. That man made THE BEST bacon I have ever eaten. Bill was like my dad...there was NOTHING he couldn't do! I loved and respected him so much. There are just too many more to try to go on. I cherish each and every memory I have of him.

He is going to be greatly missed by everyone who's life he touched, but I KNOW that he, Bill Bargo, Charlie Goins and my dad are together again and rejoicing in heaven as I write this!! Heaven just keeps getting sweeter all the time....

“ I am forever grateful that when I became a Christian and started attending the Amelia Nazarene church that Bill was there. He was such a witness to the love and goodness of God! I don't remember ever seeing him that he wasn't laughing. I loved him and I love his family and will be praying for them.
